

"Beginnings" Announcements

October 5:

- Abram/Abraham and Sarai/Sarah are interchangeable except in specific instances where the question requires the correct name. For example, "What did God change Abram's name to" must be answered "Abraham" and not "Abram."
- Flood/Floodwaters are interchangeable.

August 22:

The following list corrections should be made:

- HAGAR was inadvertently listed under Proper Named Men, and should be changed to a Proper Named Women.

August 11:

The following should replace rule 2.5.4.1

2.5.4.1. For all answers, including questions requiring specific answers, only the following may be given when answering:

- the required answer
- the required answer's direct modifier(s)
- insignificant words
- information contained in the question even if not given exactly as found in the question

Example 1: Question: What could Jesus call more than twelve legions of? Expected answer: Angels;
Player responds: "twelve legions of angels" should be correct.

Example 2: Question: "Where did Jesus go after he rose from the dead?" Expected answer: Galilee;
Player responds: "he went to Galilee" should be correct even though the exact words "he went" are not in the question and even though the words "he went to" is not included in the list of Proper Named Places.
